RE: Alaska Sales & Use Tax Exemption

Dear Customer:

According to Alaska Remote Seller Sales Tax Commission Uniform Code, we must have either

- 1) A Reseller Sales Tax Exemption Certification from Alaska Remote Seller Sales Tax Commission
- OR
- 2) A copy of your Alaska Business License AND a copy of your Local Jurisdictions Sales Tax/Seller's Permit
- OR
- 3) A copy of your Local Jurisdictions Exemption Certificate

on file in order to grant tax-exempt status to you as a customer.

If you are not a registered business with the Alaska Remote Seller Sales Tax Commission, you may contact the Alaska Remote Seller Sales Tax Commission at (907) 790-5300 or you can log on to <https://arsstc.org> for more information.

OR

If you are not a registered business with the Alaska Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing, you may contact the Alaska Department of Commerce at (907) 465-2550 or you can log on to <https://www.commerce.alaska.gov/web/cbpl/BusinessLicensing.aspx> for more information.

OR

Please contact your local jurisdiction for questions about your local Sales Tax/Reseller License, as well as, if they have a Sales Tax Exemption Certificate.
